

As control of media shrinks, so does the availability of diverse news, music, opinion and public affairs programming. These rules must serve the PUBLIC interest!

I strongly oppose the proposed change in the "ownership" limitations of our medias.